

Lunch seminar: Democracy - is it something to consider?

LiU presents a lunch seminar series in three parts on issues related to democracy before the European election held later this Spring.

Welcome to participate. The series will be held in English. No registration is required.

Free lunch sandwich to the first 50 participants!

Date and time: 22 April, 12:15-13:00
Location: K2, Kåkenhus, Campus Norrköping
Topic: Is academic freedom important for democratic societies?

Presenter: Claudia Tazreiter, Professor, Department of Culture and Society, together with Stefan Jonsson, Amin Mohseni, Rebecka Katz Thor and Ola Larsmo.

Date and time: 16 May, 12:15 - 13:00
Location: Lövverket, Studenthuset, Campus Valla

Topic: The state of democracy in the world

Presenter: Martin Lundstedt, researcher at the University of Gothenburg, V-Dem Institute

Date and time: 28 May, 12:15-13:00
Location: Lövverket, Studenthuset, Campus Valla

Topic: Citizenship and EU's impact on our everyday life

Presenter: Mariana S Gustavsson, Associate Professor, Department of Management and Engineering (IEI) and Isabelle Johansson, Head of Office, Region Östergötland EU Office

Read more on the student intranet

