

Open lectures on adult education at Linköping University

The unit for Education and Adult Learning at Linköping University has the great pleasure to invite you to participate in three lectures by two prominent international researchers within the area of adult education and lifelong learning. They all take place at Linköping University, Campus Valla, house I.

17/10 13.15-15
Room I:101 Explorations in personal learning (Peter Jarvis)

18/10 9.15-12
Room: I:207 Future for research on adult education and lifelong learning (Peter Jarvis)

18/10 13.15-16
Room: I:207 Lifelong learning for all in a time of transitional governance (Kjell Rubenson)

Peter Jarvis is a professor of continuing education at the University of Surrey, UK. He has written and edited well over 30 books and 200 papers and chapters in books on adult education and learning, continuing professional education, nurse education, primary school education, distance education, third age education. He has also been involved in writing a number of research reports ranging from curriculum evaluation in nursing to older people mentoring in the workplace. He has been grant holder for a number of research projects. He serves on editorial boards of a number of journals in different parts of the world including Adult Education Quarterly in the USA, Comparative Education, the Editorial Board of which he chaired for five years and he is an assessor for Nurse Education Today. He is the founding editor of The International Journal of Lifelong Education, which he has edited for nearly thirty years.

Kjell Rubenson had the first chair in adult education in Sweden and was the Dean of Education at Linköping University in Sweden before coming to Canada where he is a professor of education at the University of British Columbia and co-director of the Centre for Policy Studies in Higher Education and Training. He has supervised several large national and international research projects on structures, policies and outcomes of adult education and lifelong learning. He is the founding president of the European Society for research on the Education of Adults. For OECD, Kjell was responsible for a review of National Reviews of Educational Policies on lifelong learning and has been involved in the IALS, ALL, and PIAAC projects. At the European Commission, he was a member of the scientific advisory board of the EURYDICE Education Information Network.

Any questions can be directed to Associate Professor Andreas Fejes by e-mail andreas.fejes@liu.se or by phone: 0736-185553

More information about the unit for Education and Adult Learning at www.ibl.liu.se/pedvux