

‘East meets West: the Case of Labour Migration to Sweden’

Stockholm University, House E, floor 3, room E306

November 25, 2014 at 6-9 pm

A seminar to report on FAS/FORTE Project ‘The Swedish model and Baltic mobility: harmonisation or social dumping? A study of labour migration between the Baltics and Sweden’

Seminar Programme:

Charles Woolfson, Project Leader, REMESO, Linköping University, ‘Crisis and Austerity in the Baltic States’

Indre Genelyte, Doctoral Candidate, REMESO, Linköping University, ‘The Two Sides of the Baltic Sea: Lithuanians Moving to Work to Sweden’

Annette Thörnquist, Affiliated Researcher, REMESO, Linköping University, ‘False (Bogus) Self-Employment in East-West Labour Migration: Recent trends in the Swedish construction and road haulage industries’

Charles Woolfson, ‘Migration and the Changing Swedish Labour Market Model’

Registration open until November 21, 2014. To register please contact Ignė STALMOKAITĖ at lgne.STALMOKAITE@trainee.mfa.lt

Welcome to the seminar!

This event is sponsored by the Embassy of the Republic of Lithuania in Stockholm.